Since 1975 the Clinton Historical Society has been serving the people of the Town of Clinton, New York. Our headquarters, the 1777 Creek Meeting House in Clinton Corners, is on the National Register of Historic Places.

At the Creek Meeting House and elsewhere, the Historical Society sponsors historical programs, exhibits, and musical, social, and fundraising events. First Friday programs are offered monthly, September through June, featuring speakers on historical topics of local and regional interest. We sponsor preservation and community awards and a Landmark Preservation Program.

The Society publishes a quarterly newsletter (The Clinton Historian) and books on local history as well as reproductions of historical maps. We maintain an archive, which is available for research by appointment. Our website contains digital archives and information on publications, programs, local history, and fundraisers.

We host monthly program meetings and a December Holiday Potluck Supper and Auction.

The Society is an IRS-approved nonprofit educational organization and is chartered by the New York State Board of Regents. It is an all-volunteer organization dependent on membership contributions and other sources of fundraising. We hope you will join us in our mission to preserve the Creek Meeting House and foster appreciation for the history of the Town of Clinton.
