

THE CLINTON HISTORIAN

The Clinton Historical Society

Volume XIV Number 7

Craig Marshall, Editor 266-5494

December, 2001

"Dear Diary:"

THE SECRET THOUGHTS OF CLINTON CITIZENS IN THE LATE 1800S

By Eleanor Rogers

725 word article goes here, in two columns and continues on page 2.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy

Continued on page 2

COLUMN ON PLACES AND EVENTS OF LOCAL HISTORICAL INTEREST

By Joanne and David Schmidt

525 word article goes here and continues on page 4. Potential authors include George Greenwood, Bill McDermott, Mike Appolonia, Craig Marshall, Edna Lachmund, Eleanor Rogers, Jim & Carol Boice and others.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

Continued on page 4

WIN!

The first 200 members to pay their 2002 dues before January will win our heartfelt thanks

If you haven't been paying your dues on time, we know it's not because you don't care about the Society. You're busy and you just forget. But your dues are very important. First, they offer moral support to the core group of members who do much of the work. And second, they help pay for the monthly newsletter, special events and presentations and the Society's on-going research. As you can see, when everybody pays dues, everybody wins. So please do it now while it's on your mind. Write out a check for $10 for an individual membership or $15 for the whole family, stuff it in an envelope, and mail it to The Clinton Historical Society, P.O. Box 122, Clinton Corners, NY 12514.

Thanks.

Preserving Clinton's Heritage

Continued from page 1

“Dear Diary:” THE SECRET THOUGHTS OF CLINTON CITIZENS

how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

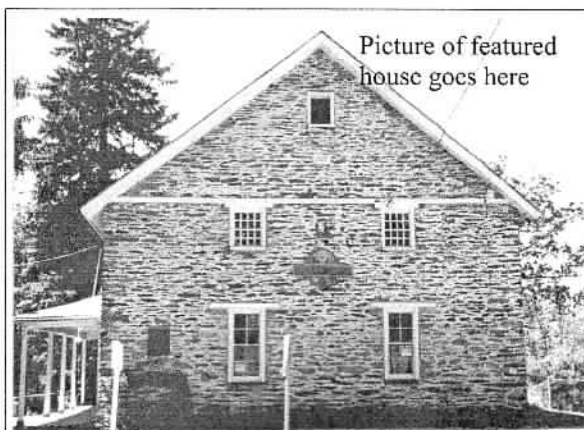

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accu-

CLINTON’S TREASURY OF HISTORIC HOMES

In 1792, Ebenezer Scrooge built his house, stone by heavy stone

By Michael Appolonia

500 word article goes here.

This regular column will feature Clinton’s Landmark and historical homes. Information will be provided about the house, it’s original occupants and possibly about the current occupants and the discoveries they have made over the years.

Potential authors include George Greenwood, Bill McDermott, Mike Appolonia, Craig Marshall, Edna Lachmund, Eleanor Rogers, Jim & Carol Boice and others.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive

Creek Meeting House
Preservation News

By _____
110 word article. This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It

LOVE LIVING IN CLINTON?

Read about the people, places and events that have made our town special
(These are great holiday gifts!)

List of Historical Society books and pamphlets for sale, with prices and phone number to order

HOLIDAY DINNER &
AUCTION

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 6:30 PM
HISTORICAL CENTER, CLINTON CORNERS

Bring a covered dish, a wrapped gift and a voracious appetite!

This is a casual and comfy event many of us look forward to, year after year. No need for reservations. No admission charge. Just bring your favorite dish and an inexpensive gift and join friends and neighbors for a delicious meal and a fun-filled holiday auction that benefits the Society. If you've never come to this dinner before, do come this year; you'll enjoy it so much that you will make it a ritual too! For information, call _____.

Masonic Hall
Preservation News

By _____
110 word article

*EDITORS DRAFT
NOT FINAL*

Make a date with your valentine
for Saturday, February 16

Over 100 Society members were treated to a blossom-filled Garden of Venus at the annual St. Valentine's Dinner at the Masonic Hall last year. Local artist Johanne Renbeck supplied the décor: guests sipped cocktails under frolicking cupids and dined on Chicken Marbella and North Atlantic Salmon in the presence of the King of Hearts and the Goddess of Venus herself.

This year, more surprises are in store. So mark the date on your calendar now and when your invitation arrives in January, grab the phone and reserve your place!

Continued from page 1

PLACES AND EVENTS OF LOCAL HISTORICAL INTEREST

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accuracy how many words are needed. It makes it much easier if articles are written to the length needed so that extensive editing is not required.

This is a paragraph written in order to find out how many words will fit in this space. This paragraph will be repeated until all of the allocated space is used. In this way, we can ascertain with great accur

A SURE CURE FOR CABIN FEVER:

Come in out of the cold and warm up with some hot music!

Saturday, January ____, ____ PM The Masonic Hall Coffee House

Information about the musicians, price, location, parking, etc. goes in two columns here.

The Clinton Historical Society
P. O. Box 122
Clinton Corners, NY 12414